TRAVEL TO ORCAS ISLAND

Here is a summary of the transportation options, which can include ferries, airplanes, cars, and boats, oh my!

Driving or walking onto the ferry: The Washington State Ferry departs from Anacortes, located approximately 2.5 hours drive north of Seattle. Sailing on the ferry from Anacortes to Orcas Island takes approximately 1.5 hours.

Approximate Ferry Costs: $39.80 per vehicle plus $12.15 for each additional adult besides driver, or just $12.15 per adult for walk-ons.

* If you are boarding from Anacortes on August 1st, you will need to catch the 10:15 am or the 12:30 pm. Because the ferry fills up fast, please arrive at the ferry terminal 45+ minutes before departure time.

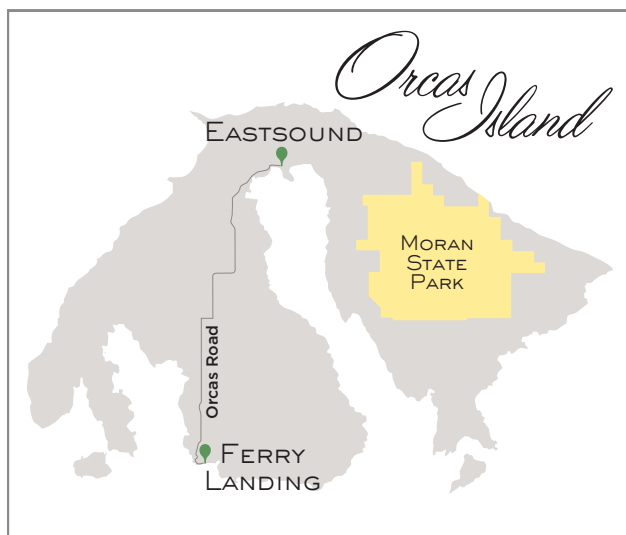

* Time or price changes may occur. Please check the ferry website: www.wsdot.wa.gov/ferries/schedule/

* Because of the price, and limited ferry capacity, please consider walking on — a shuttle will take you to East-sound, where everything is within walking distance!

Other options:

- Flying to Orcas from Seattle ($109 one way)
- Taking the Sea-Tac Airport Shuttle bus from Seattle to Anacortes, then walking onto the Ferry. ($35/person + ferry costs)

Driving Directions on the Island: Follow the ferry traffic left off the ferry. Take Orcas Road to Eastsound (8 miles).

Walking Directions: Catch shuttle to Eastsound.

Directions to Wedding Site: 112 Haven Road, Eastsound
In Eastsound, drive east on Main Street and turn right on Haven Rd. Our wedding will be at Odd Fellows Hall on the right. You can park downtown or on Haven Rd.

Please leave yourself plenty of time for transportation delays!

ACCOMMODATIONS ON ORCAS ISLAND

There should be adequate time to catch the last ferry back to Anacortes after the reception. However, we suggest staying the night on the island Sunday night, August 1st.

There are rooms set aside for wedding guests at the Outlook Inn, in Eastsound, but only for a limited time. Alternatively, guests can stay at the Moran state park campgrounds, or in other private cabins and vacation homes.

Please try to plan your transportation and/or lodging as soon as possible!
